

Update on tax and customs for European Union Packages –July 2021

Please note this document is for rough guidance only and was correct on 1st July 2021 but changes may occur over time. Please check with your national postal service for updates

From July 1 the tax and customs regulations for online order packages being sent to the EU from the UK are changing and all packages regardless of value sent from the UK to the EU will be subject to local VAT and customs payments. Local customs will contact the parcel recipient to collect these charges.
