

weaversbazaar

Newsletter July 2011

weaversbazaar on the road...

weaversbazaar will be out and about over the next couple of months which may give some of you the opportunity to see and purchase our yarns 'in the flesh'! We are delighted to have these opportunities and hope to meet some of our customers in person. Here are the details:

- Sunday 17th July. Upham Village Hall, Lower Upham, Hampshire. SO32 1HF. From 1330, before the Maximo Laura presentation, 'Living with fibres and colours: weaving as art'. This is a ticket event (£8) but places may still be available via info@wovencolour.co.uk.
- West Dean Summer School Week 30th July – 5th August. Full details have yet to be confirmed but do pencil these dates in your diaries and we will update you shortly.

If you are at either venue do come and say 'hello'!

Tapestry Spotlight: Matty and Lin!

Summer Shadows by Matty

Matty and Lin are featuring themselves this month as we have both had weaves accepted for the British Tapestry Group exhibition 'Woven Threads'. This is really something to be excited about and we hope that it will be the start of many more opportunities to share our work. Being selected through a juried process can be daunting but the sense of achievement is tremendous. Shown here are our two main pieces that are on display at the Stables Gallery, Orleans House Gallery, Riverside, Twickenham, TW1 3DJ from 7 July to 23 October. Many congratulations to the British Tapestry Group for putting together such a great exhibition!

Reflected Tree by Lin

Found on the web

Archie Brennan's Blog features, amongst other things, his World Map Project. What a great idea and how kind of all the original recipients of the various postcards to hang on to them – and to let him have them back!

<http://www.archiebrennanproject.com/>

Lany Eila's 'Any time now' compilation is a wonderful collection of shared memories demonstrating how one generation tries to protect the next through misguided tales of doom and gloom. Her focus on using a restricted colour palette really adds impact to these delightful pieces.

http://www.lanyeila.com/gallery_pages/anytimenow.html

If you are ever looking for visual inspiration, do visit the National Geographic web site. This gives access to the astounding photographic images this publication is renowned for. <http://www.nationalgeographic.com/>

And finally....

Have you given us your feedback via the weaversbazaar feedback survey? If not then do please take a few minutes to let us know what you think of what we do and where you would like to see some development.

http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/weaversbazaar_2011

Happy textile adventures!